1. The Language Gallery Canada may dismiss a student from a program on any of the following grounds:

Suspension

Any member of staff can request and subsequently take steps to ensure that a student vacates the school premises if, on the basis of evidence, they discover or are made aware of any major contravention of the Student Code of Conduct. This would include, but would not be limited to:

- Aggressive or violent behavior or the threat thereof;
- Damage or threatened damage to TLGC buildings, students and/or staff and/or their property;
- Any activity involving the unauthorized use of drugs or alcohol;
- Any activity likely to disrupt the proper running of TLGC e.g. setting off the fire alarm, refusal to obey a reasonable request by a member of staff;
- Breaches of TLGC policies with particular reference to Sexual Violence and Sexual Harassment, Bullying, Equal Opportunities.

This policy applies to student conduct on TLGC premises; however, it may also be applied to conduct that occurs off TLGC premises if that conduct threatens or is perceived to threaten the safety or well-being of any student, staff or member of the TLGC community or if the conduct is considered to bring the name of TLGC into disrepute.

Where a student has been asked to leave the premises by a member of staff, the student should hand his/her ID card to that member of staff and, where applicable, any keys to TLGC's premises either electronic or manual. The member of staff will inform the student that they can only return to the school when they have received written permission to do so from the Campus Manager.

Dismissal Policy

Where a student requires access to the school in order to prepare reports, gather evidence or obtain witness statements in respect of the disciplinary hearing, such access can be authorized by telephone by the Campus Manager. In such circumstances, the student would be required to identify the times at which they need to access the school and to sign in and out at reception.

The Student Services must inform the relevant Campus and Academic Manager of student suspensions within one working day of the student being asked to leave premises.

If suspended students are subsequently allowed to return on premises, Academic or Student Services Manager will ensure that the same people that were informed of the suspension are notified that it has been lifted. Where a suspension is lifted the student's ID card or other items which have been taken from the student will be returned to him/her, subject to the findings of any subsequent disciplinary or appeal hearing.

Neither of these processes, i.e. a member of staff asking a student to leave the premises or the issuing of a letter of suspension, is to be seen as any indication the eventual outcome of the investigation.

Expulsion Policy

The following outlines the conditions under which a student may be expelled with cause:

- Academic Dishonesty: students may be subject to expulsion at the discretion of TLGC for breaching an Academic Integrity Policy;
- Outstanding Fees: failure to pay tuition or other fees owing to TLGC is considered to be theft and students who fail to remit outstanding fees may be expelled after written warning has been provided by TLGC and the student fails to comply within the stated parameters;
- Code of Conduct: all students are required to adhere to code of conduct. Where the violations do not have the potential to result in physical harm to person or property TLGC may expel a student who has received suspension for failure to comply and has since violated any of the terms of TLGC's code of conduct;

- Drugs, Alcohol or Weapons: students who are found under the influence of drugs and/or alcohol or carrying weapons will be subject to immediate expulsion;
- Misrepresentation, Significant Omissions or Errors in Admissions

Where no specific policy exists, TLGC should provide sufficient detail to allow the student to comprehend the conditions that will result in expulsion.

2. The process by which a student may be dismissed from a program is as follows:

- Students who are subject to expulsion for any reason will be notified in writing, either hand delivered or by registered mail. TLGC is not responsible for non-delivery by registered mail if the student has not provided a valid, current address.

The notification will contain a description of the basis for expulsion and the effective date. Expelled students who dispute the facts of the expulsion must appeal the decision within three days of the notification following the complaints procedure of TLGC provided to the student and providing sufficient proof to support the complaint.

- Students who file an appeal and are unsuccessful are considered withdrawn from the TLGC. Further appeals must be filed through the Dispute Resolution Policy of the TLGC.

- Return of Property: a student who is expelled is responsible for the return of any TLGC property in his/her own possession within 10 days and will be held financially responsible for any property not returned in good condition or as outlined in the student contract. However, TLGC may not deduct from a student's fee refund, as set out in the enrolment contract, any amount owing by the student with respect to such property.
